Youth in the Lead

Jessica Merrill
Communications Manager
California Partnership to End Domestic Violence

November 21, 2019 | 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Main Components

- Youth Survey

- Quotes input into shareable social media images
- Videos

Inspiration

- Theme continued from last year
- Elevating youth wisdom & expertise on teen dating violence prevention & connected areas of social justice
- Connecting Partnership members with other coalitions
- Educating policymakers and Californians

Campaign Visuals

To Be Designed by Youth

- We'll be seeking graphic design proposals from young people aged 15-18
- $500 stipend
- Coming soon!

Tools for You – Coming Soon

- A calendar of monthly activities and resources (January)
- Adaptable Survey (Word document)
- Quote Templates for Social Media
- Sample TDVAPM Resolution

Outreach and Awareness Building

- Spread the word to the youth you work with
- Collect responses in your community using adaptable survey (sharing with the Partnership, if possible)
- Use our adaptable social media image templates
- Create a display with quotes at a local library, city hall, or county building
- Pitch a story to a local journalist on survey results and emerging themes
- Share survey results with policymakers; invite them to visit your organization during TDVAPM

The logo for 'Elevating Youth Voices' features the text in a blue, sans-serif font. It is set against a background of overlapping orange and red circles, with a white circular glow behind the text. A stylized circuit board pattern is visible within the orange circle.
